May $1.27%. Oats gained % to 1; and provisions 15@17 to 35c. Buyers of corn appeared to have their their attention fixed on the change tomorrow making the commercial grades take rank as contract grades and removing the maximum price curb entirely from new style transactions. Estimates of the opening price for the July option ranged all the way from $1.40 to $1.50. The fact that receipts continued meagre tended also to favor the bulls, but was subsequently offset by government reports that planting was progressing northward at a seasonable rate and had recently reached the lower Ohio valley. Besides, further improvement was centry reached the lower Ohio valley.

Besides, further improvement was noted in the quality of arrivals here.

Oats bulged sharply after a period of weakness that was ascribed to favorable crop conditions. The ensuing strength resulted from opinions that if corn commanded $1.50 for new July contracts, the value of oats, too, should ascend.

Provisions rose with hogs and be-cause of decreased packing in the west. Close:

SMOKING IN CHURCH

(Washington Times) Smoking in church is a Dutch cus-tom. Dutchmen are such inveterate smokers that rarely is one of them seen without a pipe. He finds himself unable to deprive himself of the indulgence, even for the short period of a church service. A similar practice ex-ists in several churches in South

SCOTTSDALE LIBERT DRIVE IS ORGANIZED

SCOTSDALE, April 11.—The third Liberty loan drive started here with Charles Miller as district chairman and Mrs. Walter Smith acting in the same position for the women of the community. Each chairman is appointing ten captains who will aid in carrying on the work. The work is greatly simplified by using the boundaries of the school sections.

Scottsdale and its district has been apportioned to raise $20,000, or two per cent of the tax valuation. The chair-men of the committee are very anxious that all Scottsdale bond buyers secure them through the Scottsdale branch so as to insure the fulfilling of the apportionment. Rev. Mr. Richard Pope, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Vanderhoof and Hans Weaver, left Tuesday morning to attend the convention of Baptists of Arizona which is in progress this week at Safford. During the absence of the party Mrs. Carlson of Phoenix, is staying with Mrs. Pope.

erty has been changing hands recently. Mrs. Bertha Sistrunk Ainsley has sold a tract of five acres of her place to Mr. Dunn and J. W. Smith has dis-posed of the relinquishment of his son's claim for $1,800.

Mrs. E. R. Ward has accepted a position in the E. O. Brown general

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Allen returned Monday from a few day's stay at their Paradise valley homestead.

The first meeting of the new school board was held Saturday night with Charles Miller and J. F. Burleson in attendance. E. Brown, the third mem-ber, was absent, being engaged in other business. Burgson is the president of the board for the coming year, while Miller is clerk.

The principle business of the evening was the request presented by the present corps of teachers that the usual eight months term of school be length-ened to nine months. This was acted ened to nine months. This was acted upon formally, and school will continue through May instead of ending the last of April, as formerly.

Mrs. Emma Thomas and daughter, Mrs. Alexander Caldwell and Miss Marjorie Thomas, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Mary Washburn of Paradise valley. Sunday evening Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. Washburn accompanied E. O. Brown on a visit to Manzanita range.

Mrs. Edgar Robbins has sold her reslidence property here to J. S. Allbriten, but will retain possession until the close of school.

AGELES MARKET

Rutter,

day called on the day a very point one. Plans were discussed for the Sunday school picnic to be held April 20. The place will be announced later. S. A. Allen has received many interesting pictures from his son, Corporal theory by the point of a flag to the Arizona boys by Govern Hunt on his recent visit to the camp. Corporal Allen said that the boys, regardless of their political beliefs, were all very proud of their state's chief executive, who quite wen their hearts during his stay.
